Figure 1: Degree distributions of five protein-protein interaction (PPI) networks corresponding to five datasets used in the present work roughly follow power law. The "Union" is the set union of the PPIs of other four datasets.