

Supplemental Figure 1

Purification of the cytoplasmic domains of wild-type IGF1R and the cancer-associated mutants. The proteins were analyzed by SDS-PAGE with Coomassie staining. The arrowhead indicates the position of IGF1R. The lower-molecular weight contaminant is a degradation product [9].