In the article titled “Regional Stability Analysis of Red Clay Slope Based on Different Failure Modes: A Case Study in Taizaifu Area, Fukuoka” [1], there was an error in the legend of Figure 11(b). The corrected figure should be as follows:

The error was introduced during the production process of the article, and the publisher apologises for causing this error in the article.
