2014 Summer Studentship Award Competition

The Canadian Association of Gastroenterology (CAG), in partnership with the Crohn's & Colitis Foundation of Canada, is pleased to announce the 2014 Summer Student Award Competition. These awards are designed to provide short-term financial support for undergraduates who wish to obtain introductory training in research in the field of gastroenterology.

The deadline for applications is January 31st. For more information please visit: <http://www.cag-acg.org/summer-studentships>

2014 Resident Research Award Competition

The CAG, Procter & Gamble Professional, Shire Canada, and Warner Chilcott Canada Co., are pleased to announce the availability of seven (7), Resident Research Training Awards (Procter & Gamble-4, Shire-2, Warner Chilcott-1).

These awards are designed to encourage research during clinical training and provide a foundation for research activities after gastroenterology training has been completed. The long-term goal is to stimulate research interests (basic science or clinical) in gastroenterology residents and also promote full-time faculty involvement in the research training of residents.

The deadline for applications is January 31st. For more information please visit: <http://www.cag-acg.org/resident-research-awards>.
