In the article titled “Pulsed Electromagnetic Fields Improve Tenogenic Commitment of Umbilical Cord-Derived Mesenchymal Stem Cells: A Potential Strategy for Tendon Repair—An In Vitro Study” [1], there was an error in the affiliation details of Drs. Laura Mangiavini, Laura de Girolamo, and Marco Viganò, as they were wrongly affiliated to “⁴Department of Biomedical Sciences for Health, University of Milan, Milano, Italy.” However, they should be affiliated to “³IRCCS Istituto Ortopedico Galeazzi, Milano, Italy.” The corrected authors’ list and affiliations are shown above.
